TERMS OF AGREEMENT Woodland Incentive Program (WIP)

1. All agreements, terms, conditions, practices, payments, obligations and penalties of both the Department and the participating landowner are governed according to Maryland Annotated Code, Natural Resources Article 5-301 through 5-307, and, Code of Maryland Regulations 08.07.05.
2. "Forestry practice" means any accepted silvicultural and reforestation activity approved by a Licensed Forester.
3. Any individual group or corporation is eligible that owns private woodland consisting of 5 to 1,000 contiguous acres capable of producing 20 cubic feet of wood per acre per year and, when appropriate, has the potential of being harvested for forest products.
4. Any corporation or subsidiary of a corporation that manufactures forest products or provides utility services is not eligible.
5. Any individual, group or corporation that has received cost-share assistance from this program for the same practice(s) on the same parcel, stand or tract within the last 15 years is ineligible to participate.
6. A landowner is not eligible for more than $5,000 in a calendar year or $15,000.00 in any consecutive 3-year period for all approved practices.
7. An eligible landowner shall:
 - a. Provide the Department a plan approved by a Licensed Forester and prepared for the purpose of accomplishing forestry practices.
 - b. Agree to use the cost-share assistance for continued forest improvement and growth of harvestable forest products on a long-term basis.
 - c. Agree to permit a representative of the Department to enter the stand or tract to inspect for program compliance and determine the effectiveness of the practice during normal hours of business for a period not to exceed 15 years after completion.
 - d. Agree to accept the cost-share payment not to exceed 65 percent of actual expenses or of flat rate allowance, whichever is lesser.
 - e. Agree to hold the Department harmless from liability for occurrences arising during inspection by representative of the Department on official business.
8. The Department shall:
 - a. Notify each applicant of approval or disapproval within 30 calendar days after expiration of the enrollment period.
 - b. Make payment to eligible landowners with a reasonable time after receipt of expense documents, inspection and approval of practice.
