

Maryland Jurisdictions with Natural Resources Court Dates

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources, the Office of the Attorney General and the District Court of Maryland have expanded a successful program highlighting natural resources cases to 18 of Maryland's 24 jurisdictions. Under the program, cases including fishing, hunting, boating and tree expert violations are heard on a specific day each month in the region where they occurred, and prosecuted by a designated regional State's Attorney. NRP is working to have natural resource dockets established in the near future in the remaining six areas – Frederick, Harford, Montgomery, Prince George's, and Washington counties, and Baltimore City.
