The 25th Annual
18th CENTURY MARKET FAIR
APRIL 25 - 28, 2019

Come to historic Fort Frederick, and travel back in time to an authentic 18th century market fair. As campfire smoke fills the air, colorful entertainers perform about the fair while over 100 sutlers (period vendors) sell 18th century wares. Visitors can purchase reproductions of pottery, tin and copper ware, clothing, fabrics and patterns, books, fireplace and cooking hardware, muskets and accoutrements, paintings and prints, lanterns, camp gear and much more dating from 1730 to 1790. Mingle with hundreds of fair-goers of all ages dressed in colonial clothing: artisans, soldiers, ladies & gentlemen, American Indians, traders, and servants will all be there. Food vendors will also be available at the fair.

Hours:
     9:00 am – 5:00 pm Thursday through Saturday
     9:00 am – 3:00 pm on Sunday

Admission:
     $5.00 – Adults
     $2.00 – 6 to 12 year olds
     Thursday Only - 4 day passes available at the gate
          $15.00 - Adults / $6.00 - 6 to 12 year olds
     Free:
- 5 year olds and under
- Maryland State Park Golden Age Pass
- Maryland State Park Passport
- Maryland State Park Universal Disability Pass
- Every Kid in a Park Pass
- Active Duty Military with ID
- Maryland National Guard with ID
- Veterans with ID

For more information please visit the Friends of Fort Frederick State Park Market Fair web page at https://friendsoffortfrederick.info/market_fair.htm or call the park at 301-842-2155.

Modern camping is not available at Fort Frederick State Park during Market Fair from April 22 to 28, 2019. Camping is available at Greenbrier State Park and Rocky Gap State Park. Greenbrier State Park is located 30 minutes east of Fort Frederick off of interstate 70. Reservations may be made at https://parkreservations.maryland.gov/ . Rocky Gap State Park is located 45 minutes west of Fort Frederick off of Interstate 68. Rocky Gap State Park is first come first service during the month of April. To contact Rocky Gape State Park for more information about camping call 301-722-1480 or email at rockygap.statepark@maryland.gov .