

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH AT HARRIET TUBMAN UNDERGROUND RAILROAD STATE PARK & VISITOR CENTER

Join us for free, family-friendly programs on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays in February. The Park is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Fridays | February 1, 8, 15 and 22

Introductions at 10 a.m., noon and 4 p.m.

Enjoy a ranger-led introduction and learn about the symbolism of the park and Visitor Center.

Fighting for Freedom: Lewis Hayden and the Underground Railroad at 2 pm

Watch the National Park Service Underground Railroad Network to Freedom program movie with Diane Miller, program manager.

Saturdays | February 2, 9, 16 and 23

The Park in Pictures at 11 a.m.

Photography can communicate without words and transcend time. Learn what makes an image timeless and meaningful with Ranger Harris. Bring your device (with camera capabilities), creativity and a sense of humor.

The Instrumentalities of War at 1 p.m.

War never changes but the results are not always obvious. Join Ranger Nwakudo and explore the ways that wars in Africa impacted the culture and identity of those involved with the slave trade.

The Songs of Enslaved People at 2 p.m.

In Tubman's time songs conveyed many messages. Through singing, clapping and discussion Ranger Roe will teach guests about the songs used by Harriet Tubman and other freedom seekers on the Underground Railroad. Participation is not required but it is heavily encouraged.

This Far By Faith: Harriet Tubman's Spiritual Journeys to Freedom at 3 p.m. (February 9th only) with Dr. Kate C. Larson

From African spiritual traditions to multiple Christian religions, Tubman sought guidance and comfort in faith communities near and far. Day after day she was fortified to survive and overcome. What do we know about Tubman's faith traditions and spiritual influences and how can we interpret them for the 21st century?

Sundays | February 3, 10, 17 and 24

Story Time with Mama Mary at 11 a.m.

Explore the concept of self-liberation through engaging storytelling and self-reflection with Ranger "Mama Mary" Dennard. Enjoy a moment of meditation and recognition of privileges taken for granted. After being a part of Ranger Mary's presentation, we hope you leave with an awareness of how far society has come and how far we still have to go.

Important Women in Harriet Tubman's Life at 3 p.m. (except the 17th)

Join Ranger Souder as she explores the lives of three influential women in Tubman's life her mother, the author of her first biography and a famous women's suffragist.
