Exploring the Marshes of the Eastern Shore

Water Trail Routes and Descriptions

Red Trail

This trail is approximately 3 miles including part of the Yellow Trail. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Yellow Trail

This trail is approximately 2.5 miles round trip. The trail starts at the marina and heads south along the marshland on the southern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Blue Trail

This trail is approximately 5 miles including parts of the Yellow and Brown trails. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Green Trail

This trail is approximately 3 miles including part of the Yellow Trail. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Brown Trail

This trail is approximately 2.5 miles round trip. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Brown Trail

This trail is approximately 2.5 miles round trip. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Black Trail

This trail is approximately 3 miles including part of the Yellow Trail. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.

Photographic Guide

The trail guide is approximately 1 mile round trip. The trail starts at the marina and heads west along the marshland on the northern end of Janes Island. The trail is suitable for all skill levels. The trail is well-marked with clear signage along the way. There are several observation points along the trail where visitors can stop and enjoy the natural beauty of the marshland.