

LEARN MORE AT DNR.MARYLAND.GOV

PERSONAL & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Work2Live WELL is a new technical skills development program that seeks to provide adults entry into emerging careers in the environmental and natural resources fields. In partnership with private businesses, nonprofits and universities, this program is designed to offer exposure, opportunity and training in several emerging fields.

CHOSEN APPLICANTS WILL RECEIVE...

- ✓ Detailed field training
- ✓ Classroom sessions
- ✓ Bi-weekly stipend
- ✓ Interviews with local employers
- ✓ One-on-one mentoring

IDEAL CANDIDATES MUST...

- ✓ Be 18+ years old
- ✓ Have a positive attitude
- ✓ Want to learn a new trade
- ✓ Pass a drug screening
- ✓ Have sufficient physical fitness (ability to climb ladders, carry 50 pounds, etc.)

Nine-week training period: five days a week, eight hours a day.
 Course materials, equipment, supplies and uniforms included free of charge.

APPLY JAN. 9 - FEB 19 | TRAIN FEB 28 - MAY 1 | GRADUATE MAY 2

BALTIMORE CITY

LAND & MARINE CONSTRUCTION
 blueprints | construction | dredging

LAND & ENVIRONMENT RESOURCES
 forestry | restoration | land management

Attend an interest session at Civic Works

Tuesdays at 1 p.m. to apply

3501 Brehms Lane, Suite B
 Baltimore, MD 21213

BALTIMOREGREENCAREERS.CIVICWORKS.COM/FOR-APPLICANTS

For more information, please contact Trystan Sill at 410-260-8103 or trystan.sill@maryland.gov

Larry Hogan, Governor | Mark Belton, Natural Resources Secretary