This is a summary of fish species that anglers commonly catch in Maryland tidal waters. It does not include all regulated species.

Complete information and updates for all regulated species are available at regulations.com/maryland/fishing/

Invasive - The department asks anglers to remove and kill any invasive fish they catch.