

Tidal Fishes of Maryland

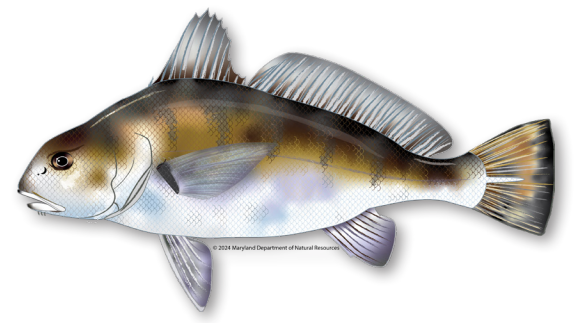

American Eel

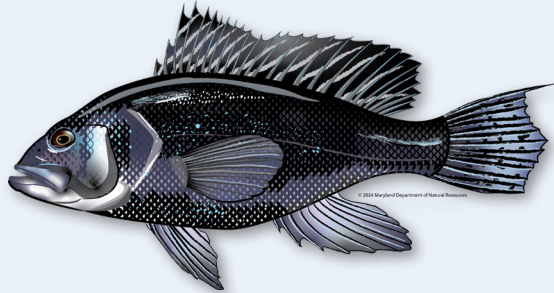

American Shad

Atlantic Croaker

Black Drum

Black Sea Bass

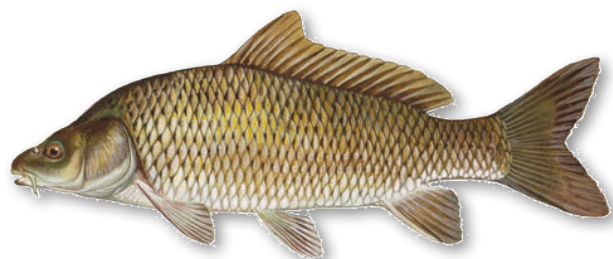

Bluefish

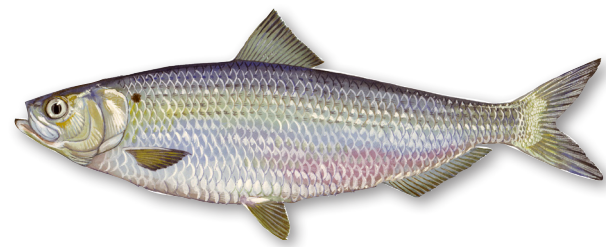

Channel Catfish

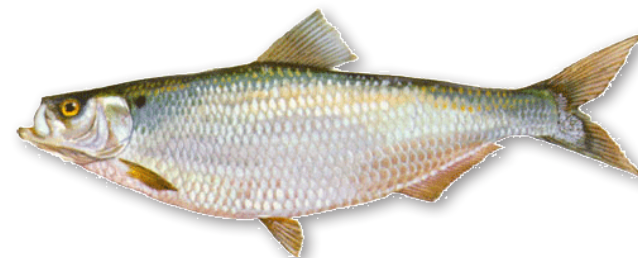

Chain Pickerel

Common Carp

Herring

Hickory Shad

Largemouth Bass

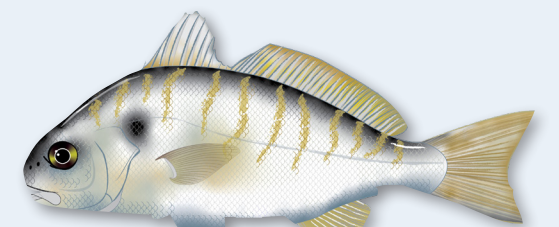

Red Drum

Smallmouth Bass

Spanish Mackerel

Spot

Spotted Seatrout

Striped Bass

Summer Flounder

Tautog

Walleye

Weakfish

White Perch

Yellow Perch

Invasive - DNR asks anglers to remove and harvest any invasive fish they catch.

Blue Catfish

Flathead Catfish

Chesapeake Channa
(Northern Snakehead)

Fish illustrations by Duane Raver unless noted otherwise
Snakehead illustration by Susan Trammell

Scan for the latest
Fishing and Crabbing Regulations

This is a summary of fish species that anglers commonly catch in Maryland tidal waters. It does not include all regulated species. Complete information and updates for all regulated species are available at dnr.maryland.gov/fisheries/regulations/regindex.asp.