

Prince George's County Solar and Wind Zoning

The Prince George's County Zoning Ordinance does not current have any language specific to the siting of large-scale or small-scale solar or wind projects. However, Prince George's County is currently undergoing a rewrite of its entire zoning ordinance. The rewrite will include definitions, zoning exclusions, use regulations, and setback and height regulations for solar and wind projects.

Guidance for Viewing Excerpts

SOLAR

Summary

- The Prince George's County Zoning Ordinance does not have specific zoning districts designated for large-scale solar projects.

Relevant Sections of the Prince George's County Code

- No document available for viewing.

SMALL SOLAR

Summary

- The Prince George's County Zoning Ordinance does not have specific zoning districts designated for small-scale/accessory solar projects.

Relevant Sections of the Prince George's County Code

- No document available for viewing.

WIND

Summary

- The Prince George's County Zoning Ordinance does not have specific zoning districts designated for large-scale wind projects.

Relevant Sections of the Prince George's County Code

- No document available for viewing.

SMALL WIND

Summary

- The Prince George's County Zoning Ordinance does not have specific zoning districts designated for small-scale/accessory wind projects.

Relevant Sections of the Prince George's County Code

- No document available for viewing.