

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

At Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad State Park
4068 Golden Hill Road, Church Creek, MD 21622
(410) 221-2290

February 4, 2 PM - Twenty Dollars and Change

Dr. Clarence Lusane, Howard University professor and author, and Harriet Tubman's great-great-great grandniece, Ernestine Tina Martin Wyatt, will have a conversation about Dr. Lusane's upcoming book, Twenty Dollars and Change, and what the fight to replace Andrew Jackson with Harriet Tubman on the twenty-dollar bill reveals about race, class, and social justice in America today.

February 11, 2 PM - A Network of Evil: Patty Cannon and the Reverse Underground Railroad

Join Ranger Collin and unearth the harrowing true-story of the Reverse Underground Railroad on the Eastern Shore, which sought to kidnap free African-Americans and press them into slavery. Behind this network of evil stood one of the most sinister figures in American history, a woman by the name of Patty Cannon. Discover her role in one of America's darkest chapters.

*Content may not be suitable for all ages.

February 18, 11 AM - 3 PM

Meet the Bust of Harriet Tubman with a Ranger on the hour.

February 25, 11 AM - 3 PM

Ranger guided tours of the exhibits on the hour.

Every Sunday in February, Noon - 3 PM

Traditional children's games and crafts in our multi-purpose room.

New this February

Enjoy our new Story Book Trail, Before She Was Harriet by Lesa Cline-Ransome, through our legacy garden.

