

MILES FOR MARYLAND

FALL FOLIAGE REPORT

While out hiking with Myles this month, look for changing leaves across the state. Maryland's peak colors typically occur between October 23 and November 1, with Garrett County peaking as early as October 15 and coastal areas as late as the first week of November.

DIFFERENT TREE SPECIES HAVE DIFFERENT COLOR CHARACTERISTICS.
SEE HOW MANY YOU CAN FIND ON YOUR HIKE THIS FALL!

OAKS:
red, brown or russet

TULIP POPLAR:
golden yellow

HICKORIES:
rich brown to bronze

SWEET GUM:

varies from red,
purple, yellow
and orange

DOGWOOD:
purple-red

BLACK GUM:
bright scarlet
red and purple

MAPLES:

differs species by species,
but typically red or orange-red

Find out all of the details about the Miles for Maryland Trail Challenge and submit your monthly mileage online at <https://mddnr.info/miles-for-maryland>