Mark your calendars for the 32nd Annual Maryland Water Monitoring Council (MWMC) Conference. This year, we are excited to bring together water professionals, academic researchers, policymakers, and community scientists to explore the vital intersections between our waterways, the information we collect, and the communities we serve.
Whether you are monitoring streams, analyzing data, or engaging the public in watershed protection, this conference is the premier networking and knowledge-sharing event for Maryland's water community.
The conference will include a plenary session, several concurrent breakout sessions, posters, exhibitor tables, lunch, and snacks. You'll also have plenty of time to network and catch up with old friends and colleagues during breaks.
