

Maryland Licensed Fawn Rehabilitators – 2026

Below is a list of licensed fawn rehabilitators for 2026. A network of volunteers composed of licensed Maryland Wildlife Rehabilitators will coordinate the transport of fawns to one of the licensed fawn rehabilitators, listed below.

Callers may also contact Mrs. Kathleen Woods (see contact information below), of the Maryland Wildlife Rehabilitators Association, who may be able to assist with the coordination of the transport of fawns to one of the licensed fawn rehabilitators listed below.
