

Examine current Land Use/Land Cover in areas near distribution lines

SmartDG+ screens out areas that have potential barriers to construction and therefore might be unsuitable for siting solar or wind projects. The image above shows a 1 mile corridor around 3-phase $\leq 35\text{kV}$ distribution lines with land use / land cover that remains after the screens are applied.